CROWDS THROG NEW PHARMACY

BEAUTIFUL PLACE OF JACK
HOOTON OPENED YESTER-DAY—MAGNIFICENT SOU-VENIRS GIVEN AWAY.

Crowds thronged the palatial new drug store of Jack Hooton at Palafox and Romana Sts., all of yesterday and all comers were presented with handsome souvenirs of the occasion—the opening day. The souvenirs were beautiful purple crepe paper packages of exquisite sachet powder, ornamented with a big paper bow on which were the words "Compliments of Hooton's Pharmacy. The souvenirs were the prettiest that have been given away in this city on any similar occasion and were not only beautiful but valuable as well. On account of their popularity several hundred more have been secured which will, for a limited time be given to all purchasers to the amount of 5 cents or over.

One of the prettiest features of this model establishment was installed last night. It is a glass pond in which water lilies in full bloom add their fragrance to the air. Last night the new store was brilliantly illuminated, fully thirty electric lights being in use. The large old brass frosted Colonial chandeliers which have been especially made to order for this drug palace failed to arrive, but will be installed in a few days. They are works of art, each holding nine lights and when they are put in will add greatly to the already exquisite appearance of the place.

The lady perfume demonstrator arrived last evening. She is Miss Anise Dozier, an expert in the business, and for the next two weeks will demonstrate the merits of different kinds of perfumery. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and get a sample of and be sprayed with perfumes valued all the way from 50 cents to $3.00 an ounce.

Jack Hooton's Pharmacy did a land office business after the doors were opened yesterday and the chances are that it will continue to do so in the future.

Thousands have been benefited by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by all druggists.

BERGER AT LAST MEETS WITH GOOD FORTUNE.

J. S. Berger, who came here recently with a number of shows, has at last met with good fortune. According to the statement he made last night he was just in receipt of a telegram from Pittsburgh, in which his attorney stated that he had won a suit there involving $20,000.

Some time since, according to Mr. Berger, an accident occurred in one of his shows in Pittsburgh, in which a spectator was injured, and brought suit for $20,000, tying up this amount of money. This has now been settled for $4,000. Mr. Berger will leave Wednesday for the Smoky City.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

As Good as Her Word.

"Old Mr. Makepeace was in a reminiscent mood. 'Did I ever tell ye what mother said to me when I got up spunk enough to ask her—in words—if she'd have me?' he began, to the delight of his grandson, Fred.

"No, but something bright, I'll warrant," chuckled Fred, with a glance at the old lady, who calmly regarded them from her rocking chair by the fireplace.

"I can't recall the preliminary remarks," Mr. Makepeace continued, "and, anyway, I think they were a trifle mixed. But finally, after I'd said something about my prospects, to make it business-like, I began to think it strange she didn't say anything, and I was afraid I was getting it all wrong.

"I'll make ye a good husband, Betty," I said, hoping that was the right thing.

"If I should marry you, John," she said, and it was the first time she had opened her lips, 'I will attend to making a good husband of you.'

"And she has!" laughed old Mr. Makepeace, the corner of his eye on his wife.

An Alarming Symptom.

"Patients often have such absurd ideas about things!" sighed the doctor in charge of the tuberculosis division of the hospital, says the New York Tribune. "Now, there's the subject of hemorrhages. I had a patient brought in here who was said to be a bad case. He had been on an egg and milk diet, yet was no better. I asked him if he had ever had a hemorrhage, and he said that he had had one very bad one.

"Tell me about it," said I. 'How were you taken?'

"Well," said he, 'I got hit on the head with a stick. It bled awful, and the doctor said it was a bad hemorrhage. He had to take eight stitches to stop it.'

"An Irishman occupied a bed in the tuberculosis ward, and one morning as I passed his bed I asked:

"Well, Pat, do you raise anything?'

"He didn't understand me.

"Do you raise anything when you cough?" I said again, but as he couldn't get what I meant through his head I went off. In a few moments he called me back.

"Oh, doctor," he said, 'I've been no-thing, and I do. Every time I cough I raise me right leg.'

GUNBY CONTROLS FEDERAL OFFICES

HE WILL DICTATE WHAT REPUB-LICANS WILL HOLD FEDER-AL JOBS IN FLORIDA.

The Jacksonville Metropolis says: A well authenticated dispatch reaches The Metropolis from Tampa that will create consternation in republican political circles in this state. This news is to the effect that Postmaster General Cortelyou, who was President Roosevelt's late private secretary and right bower generally in politics, has given the federal patronage of the southern part of the state of Florida into the hands of Hon. E. R. Gunby, late collector of the port of Tampa, and who is now not holding any political office.

Gunby, it will be remembered, was the republican candidate for governor and got a great many more votes than any other republican, as he was a stalwart "Lily White" champion. Therefore Gunby has been practically barred out of having any voice in the appointment of postmasters and other federal jobs in Florida by the Chubb-Lee-Robinson-Cooms-Macfarlane aggregation, who have represented the administration in the past, but who have somehow lost their grip, and now Gunby will be the king bee and will inaugurate an entirely new deal, which will bring as much pleasure in some circles as it will pain in others.

Another Bombshell, which will not give any consolation in certain circles, is the further statement that reaches The Metropolis from Washington that in future no government official in any part of the United States will be permitted to hold his office and be a committeeman of the state executive committee or be prominent at the head of any other political organization.

Thus it will be seen that "Othello's" occupation will be gone now" with Chubb, Lucas, Robinson, Lee, Macfarlane and various other officeholders throughout the state, who are now not only drawing pay but actually dictating as to what particular other persons may feed on the republican nursing bottle.

This means that the present federal officeholders in Florida who are now controlling the republican patronage of the state will either have to resign their positions or quit monkeying with politics, and they will have no voice in future appointments.

Joe Stripling's Agility. It was generally known among politicians in this state that if the Chubb contingent could have any say in the matter, J. N. Stripling, whose term as United States district attorney will expire this year, would never get a reappointment, as Mr. Cheney, of Orlando is slated for the place, but Stripling now may snap his fingers in the faces of his opponents.

This won't be the first time when everything looked so equally that long, lean, lanky Joe bobbed up suddenly and lit on his feet, to the confusion of those who were after his scalp.

CONZALEZ PROUD OF NEW DEPOT

STRUCTURE CHRISTENED WITH ICE CREAM SUPPER FOR GENTLEMEN WHO BUILT IT.

Special to The Journal.
Gonzalez, April 24.—Mrs. Horacio Fleming spent Thursday night and Friday in Pensacola.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hurst have moved from our little town to Pensacola. All were sorry to see them move, but hope they will like their new home.

Dr. Brewster was in Pensacola on business Thursday night.

Mrs. B. P. Wilder of Cantonment, spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. W. E. Jennings.

Our new depot is now complete and how glad we all are.

Mrs. W. L. Everheart went to Cottage hill Friday evening to attend the funeral of Dr. Jenkins.

The most enjoyable event of the season was an ice cream supper given by Miss Allie Seals in the new L. & N. depot for the gentlemen who had the honor as well as the work of building it. Cut flowers were in full display especially roses. The evening passed by pleasantly and quickly.

Cake and cream were served and all seemed to have enjoyed the occasion. They held a voting contest for the most popular gentleman and lady and Miss Allie Seals and Mr. Cross (although he did not look very cross when he discovered his popularity) were the fortunate to be presented with two lovely bouquets of roses tastefully arranged by Mr. I. E. Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson and little son, Clyde, spent Tuesday in Pensacola.

Miss Bell McVoy went to Pensacola Wednesday to remain until after Easter.

Miss Allie Seals paid Pensacola a flying trip Monday.

The writer, with several ladies, had quite a nice trip roaming the woods on Tuesday last. No doubt but nature is at her best from the rippling stream, the sweet notes from the happy birds (how can any one shut them up to live and die in cages) and the many colors and shapes of the profuse wild flowers made us all gay. Give me life in the wild woods, where God has done His best. There let me stay and rest. For all is beautiful in field and forest, sky and stream.
